

RECENT DOWNSTREAM SURFACE WATER FLOODING

October 2013 – Bottom of Cannon Hill

Quick-thinking firefighters avert flash flood damage in West End Lane

Cars and bystanders were forced to wade through knee-high water after a flash flood hit West End Lane yesterday afternoon, putting shops and businesses at risk.

Paul Wright

PUBLISHED: 17:25 21 October 2013 | UPDATED: 17:56 21 October 2013

Former councillor Nick Russell stands next to the flooding as firefighters try to clear the drains. Picture: Nick Russell

The flood, which rushed through the high street around 4pm, followed an unusually heavy downfall of rain and stretched along the north end of the street by Pizza Express and West Hampstead fire station.

24 September 2019 – bottom of Cannon Hill

↻ You Retweeted

Maria Schultz @MariaFSchultz · Sep 24

West End Lane earlier today. First time I've seen #flooding like this in #WestHampstead

Juliet Rix @julietrix1 · Sep 24

#Flooding in West Hampstead this morning. Had to walk half way up the hill just to cross the road!
#London @BBCLondonNews

↻ 2

♡ 4

<https://twitter.com/RedfrogNF>

24 September 2019 – junction of Heath Drive and Cannon Hill

